EDITORIAL

The crackle of fireworks during Diwali heralded the arrival of the concluding month of the July Term 2024 for the cadets of the Rashtriya Indian Military College. This final stretch is a unique blend of exhilaration and intensity. The anticipation of heading home serves as a driving force for every cadet, spurring them to make the most of the remaining days and carry back a treasure trove of memories and accomplishments from the term.

As the terminal exams approach, they introduce a new dynamic to our routines, where the pace of flipping through textbooks becomes a variable—accelerating exponentially as the countdown to the exams narrows, while the pressure remains a constant. The ability to juggle the term's numerous activities while excelling academically epitomizes the art of symmetrical balancing, a skill we've all honed during our tenure at this prestigious institution.

Bidding farewell is always an overwhelming experience, and the same sentiment resonates with the 196th course as they prepare to embark on a new chapter of their journey. With glimmering eyes and a resolute determination to excel, they leave behind a legacy of inspiration and carry forward the institution's illustrious name.

Each term brings a transformative change in the physical, mental, moral, and emotional dimensions of every cadet. It is this continuous evolution that sets us apart from our contemporaries outside, as we are shaped by diverse exposures and challenges designed to make us resilient in the face of any circumstance.

This term has undoubtedly been a rewarding one, with everyone putting forth his best efforts. As we prepare to depart, we look ahead with renewed zeal, enthusiasm, and determination to return stronger for the next term and shine even brighter.

BEAUTIFUL STAIN

Silently floating over, fair
Shroud to countless droplets
Shrinks, expands in shriveled air
In no time, as the blue sets.

Folks enthuse, while it's numb as frost
From the grief it watched with passing by;
Goes no trail, but still not lost
Spraying life with every mile.

Oh friend, is there no home, no place;
Where you could go to, in once a while
Long traveler wearing that face
Fighting corrosion too, every mile.

Strolling aloft, yet so modest
Painting the sky, a pertinent blank
Off the hustle a sight the best
A day's solace, when the sun sank!

ON DUTY

*Was there any answer of no,
Nor were the spirits low.
Waiting for the whistle blow,
Moving on like a river flow.*

*Waiting for orders to come,
Untouchable, never gone numb.
Standing like a fearless one,
Not stopping till the work was done.*

*Free to work under rules,
Disciplined and proud blues.
Honored and courageous green
Oceans saviors were never mean.*

*They had worked day and night
Any problem or situation tight
Had never turned their backs
Soldiers are always ready to fight.*
